

Call for Nominations

Congress of Aboriginal Peoples' National Youth Representative

The National Youth Council (NYC) is an elected group of young Aboriginal representatives from across Canada who advocate on behalf of all off-reserve status and non-status Indians, Métis, and Nunatunavut Inuit

As National Youth Representative, you will have the responsibility to:

1. Represent and advocate on behalf of the CAP NYC;
2. Attend any meetings, events, or activities as needed;
3. Serve as an official voting representative for the CAP NYC on the CAP Board of Directors;
4. Keep the CAP Board of Directors informed of NYC activities and provide a youth perspective towards all issues discussed;
5. Work with the NYC Steering Committee, provincial youth representatives, and CAP staff to deliver and enhance youth programming across Canada;
6. Adhere to the Codes of Conduct of CAP and of the NYC.

Election will be for a period of two (2) years and is open to any member of a CAP provincial or territorial organization in good standing who is 18-30 years of age at time of election.

Applicants must email a copy of their resume and a one-page cover letter with a brief introduction about themselves, why they want the position, and what strengths and knowledge they can bring to the NYC.

Applicants will be given time for a speech and questions/answer period during the NYC meeting prior to the CAP AGA. Applicants may appear in person or communicate via phone or internet for this period. A suitable time will be determined at a later date by consensus with each applicant.

Deadline for submissions is Friday September 12, 2021, at 11:59 PM EST

The election will be made official following the closing of the CAP Annual General Assembly on the evening of Saturday, September 28, 2019.
